

TASMANIAN WEDDINGS

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR ENGAGEMENT!

ABOUT QUAMBY ESTATE

We're delighted you're considering celebrating your wedding at Quamby Estate!

Our priority is you, your partner and your guests, and ensuring your wedding day exceeds all of your expectations. We can arrange everything from simple intimate ceremonies to larger elaborate celebrations with exclusive use of your own private country homestead.

We've listed some of our favourite suggestions. Talk to us about what you like, and of course let us know if you have any extra special requests!

Quamby Estate is an iconic 10 bedroom country manor in the Meander Valley situated on 150 acres of sweeping grounds reminiscent of an English parkland setting.

Although your wedding is of course the main attraction, Quamby Estate is known as a gem in Tasmania's crown with a rich history dating back to 1828.

This enchanting property was the ancestral home of Tasmania's first-born Premier, Sir Richard Dry and features charming Anglo-Indian architecture, period antiques and marble fireplace combined with modern luxuries to offer complete tranquility and opulence.

Quamby Estate's Homestead and the Sir Richard Dry Function Pavilion offers a unique and romantic setting for your perfect wedding day.

Our team of dedicated wedding specialists will assist with every step of your exciting journey so you can relax and enjoy the excitement of planning your fairytale wedding at Quamby Estate.

You can expect refurbished luxurious accommodation, exceptional food, picture book landscape views and plenty of smiles while you're here celebrating the most memorable day of your life.

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION

YOUR CEREMONY

Quamby Estate is a classically romantic venue with a welcoming 1.5km tree lined driveway, sweeping picture book landscape, 9 hole golf course and a grand historic homestead.

Saying 'I do' at Quamby Estate offers endless possibilities for your special wedding day but here are just some of our favourites:

HOMESTEAD GARDENS:

Our spectacular Hornbeam tree creates the perfect backdrop for a garden ceremony in front of Quamby Homestead.

QUAMBY LAWNS:

An outdoor ceremony on the lawns provide a picture postcard setting with dappled sunlight shining through the old English trees.

HOMESTEAD VERANDAH:

Timing your vows with a romantic sunset on the Homestead verandah is stunning for our intimate ceremonies.

THE ANTE ROOM:

The natural light streaming through the full-length glass windows and beautiful lush country surrounds of the Ante Room in the Sir Richard Dry Pavilion provides the perfect indoor option for your ceremony.

YOUR RECEPTION

You've said 'I Do'.... now its time to celebrate with your guests!

GARDEN PARTY:

Entertain your guests with a garden party like no other. The Sir Richard Dry Pavilion garden offers a stunning setting for pre-dinner beverages.

THE SIR RICHARD DRY PAVILION:

Panoramic views of Quamby's beautifully manicured golf course and estate grounds create impressive backdrop for your reception whether you're looking for a black tie dinner for up to 150 guests, a casual barbeque or a more relaxed luncheon.

The Sir Richard Dry Function Pavilion is a fusion of Georgian and contemporary architecture featuring a restaurant with bar and dance floor. The venue can be used as one space and has an audio system for background music perfect for your own iPod selection.

THE HOMESTEAD DINING ROOM:

An intimate reception luncheon or candlelit dinner in the Homestead Dining Room is a wonderful option for up to 40 guests or a cocktail party for up to 80 guests.

VENUE CHARGE

Venue charge for your wedding ceremony and reception is $1450 on Saturday and Sunday and $1000 from Monday to Friday. Minimum spend and guests numbers apply.
